CIRCULATING PETITIONS AMONG PROPERTY OWNERS

LINCOLN TO BE PAVED

Citizens Who Own Property Will Be Asked To Pay Pro Rata Share

At an informal meeting of council held Thursday evening, Borough Engineer Paul G. Elder was instructed to set the grades on Lincoln avenue from Sixth street to the northern borough line and on McKean avenue to the southern borough line, and Borough Solicitor D. M. McCloskey was instructed to prepare paving ordinances for both streets. These ordinances will be presented to council at the meeting to be held next Tuesday evening. The work is to be done so that the State aid in the improvement of these two streets promised by State Highways Commissioner E. M. Biglow can be secured at once so that the work can be completed this fall.

In order to do the paving it will be necessary for the citizens to petition council in the regular way. To help in carrying out this idea council Thursday night prepared petitions and they are being circulated today. It is hoped that the Business Men's Association will co-operate in the move to secure the necessary signers.

When State Commissioner Bigelow was here he stated that it would be necessary for council to do a part of the work through this borough if the desired improvements were to be had. To what extent he did not say, but will notify council later. Council will have to do this through the citizens and property holders.

Each property holder along the streets will be asked to pay their pro rata share of the paving to be done. It is thought that the State will pay one-third the cost leaving the rest to be paid by citizens. It is proposed to make the usual division of the cost so that each property holder will not have more than 1-4 or 1-3 of the cost to pay for the work immediately in front of his holdings. If the local cost overruns the expected percentage council will stand the difference. There is no ready money on hand but rather than lose State aid a small floating indebtedness would be incurred.

It is hoped by road boomers of this borough that the necessary signers for the petitions may be secured without delay in order that the work may proceed. The State engineers are expected here within a few days.

At the meeting Thursday evening were President J. K. Hein, and Councilmen W. R. Gaut, A. O. Davis, Oscar C. Linn, and C. O. Frye

FRANK KOLLER KILLED BY FAST EXPRESS TRAIN

Well Known Charleroi Man Meets Death at Eighth Street After Carrying Dinner to Son and Daughter

Frank Koller, aged 63, of 204 Shady avenue, while returning from Macbeth-Evans Glass plant where he had taken dinner for his son Frank and daughter Clara, was struck by the express following the 11 o'clock train at 11:50 o'clock this morning and killed. His body was knocked between 20 and 30 feet by the force of the impact.

Koller was a little deaf. At Eighth street the express begins to slow up for the stop at Charleroi. According to the statement of the fireman when the aged man was seen walking across the track it was too late to bring the train to a stop. The bell was rung and it is said the whistle tooted, but the man walked on oblivious to the danger. Apparently he was struck rather a glancing blow but still solidly enough to hurl him many feet distant.

When picked up the man was practicaly dead. His body was not much mangled, although there were several cuts and bruises about the face and upper part of the body. Death was due to internal injuries and the shock it is stated.

The body was brought to Wycoff's undertaking rooms and Coroner Jas. T. Heffran was notified this afternoon It is probable that an inquest will be held to probe the man's death.

His widow, Mrs. Mary Koller, two sons, Frank and George, both Macbeth-Evans workers and six daughters survive. The daughters are: Mrs. Joseph Wentzel, Mrs. Fred Reeves, Mrs. John Glasser, and Misses Mary and Clara at home and Mrs. George Rothleter. No funeral arrangements have been made.

STRICKEN WHILE ON WAY FROM REUNION

Thomas T. Hill, Aged Veteran of Civil War, at Home of Son in Charleroi in a Critical Condition

After two enjoyable days spent with his old comrades of the stirring days of the sixties Thomas T. Hill, a well known resident of Beallsville, and a member of the Ringgold Battalion during the Civil war, was stricken by paralysis late Thursday afternoon as he was returning from the reunion held at Belle Vernon. Mr. Hill who is about 70 years of age, is in a critical condition. He is at the home of his son, James Hill, 333 Fallowfield avenue, Charleroi.

Mr. Hill in company with A. W. Nickeson, of Beallsville was driving homeward. When near Clover Hill he suddenly became ill. He asked Mr. Nickeson for a drink of water, but before his companion had time to reply the aged man fell forward in a semi-conscious condition. Mr. Nickeson hurried the veteran to a nearby house, where a Charleroi physician was summoned. Later in the evening Mr. Hill was taken to the home of his son.

Mr. Hill had been deeply interested in the Ringgold reunion which has been in session in Belle Vernon for the past two days and for weeks had looked forward with the keenest pleasure to meeting with his comrades of the other days. He thoroughly enjoyed every minute of the time spent at Belle Vernon and had been talking with Mr. Nickeson of the men he had met and the stories he had heard but a few minutes before he was stricken.

DUDLEY ASKS FOR RETURN OF FINE

Pardoned Washington Druggist Wants $1,000 Given Back by County

E G. Dudley the Washington druggist who was arrested and served some time in the county jail for illegal liquor selling and fined $1,000, but was later pardoned after serving about two months of the six months' sentence, has filed suit against Washington county to collect the fine of $1,000 which was paid to the county commissioners. Dudley claims that when he was pardoned this relieved him of the fine and that now he is entitled to have the money returned to him.

Dudley fought his case to the last ditch in all of the courts and being turned down in the higher courts, sought pardon. The matter was taken up with the pardon board and after he had served about half his sentence he was pardoned.

The fine was collected only a short time before the pardon was received for Dudley. In the papers received from the pardon board nothing was said about the fine, and now he is bringing suit to compel the county of Washington to pay back this money.

SAYS CONSTANTINOPLE IS FULL OF CHOLERA

One of the worst cholera epidemics ever experienced in Turkey has driven people from the city of Constantinople, included in the number who hastily departed being a well known young Charleroi man, C. Heilinger, a Macbeth-Evans worker who has been spending some months in the old world. Mr. Heilinger in a post card message from Constantinople to Editor E. C. Niver of the Mail says:

"I will depart from here as soon as possible as the cholera is spreading in all directions in the city and environs. One is not safe any place. I have witnessed the worst cases ever known here. These were in Turkey in the Golden Horn where over 100 victims died in one day. They couldn't get enough coffins made to bury the dead."

In a later card Mr. Heilinger states that he is on his way home and expects to arrive the first week of September.

HOT FIGHT ANTICIPATED

Supporters of Liberal Policy Said to be Preparing—Fusion Has Bearing

Much interest centers in the suggestion meeting to be held by the Republican party of Charleroi tonight at the Firemen's rooms. Upon it will hinge much interest in the municipal offices to be filled and it will have an important bearing both on the fall primaries to be held on September 30 and the election to be held in November.

It is rumored that an effort will be made by supporters of the so-called liberal policy for the town to have men favorable to their interests placed in office. Council is the main attraction. There are four councilmen to be elected, three for four years and one for two years. Sharing the interest with the councilmanic fight will be that of school directors. For the first time since the town started an entire new board of school directors will be chosen, two for two years, two for four and three for six years. This election will be in accordance with the new school code. Other important offices to be filled are justice of the peace, two to be elected, constable, assessor, auditor, high constable and all the election officers. Tonight the Republicans will name candidates for all these offices.

While the Reupblicans are busy the Democratic-Keystone alliance is getting in its work and men named at the primary by this fusion will be in the fight at the election in November up to their necks. The chances are the fushion will mean an unprecedented fight for the councilmanic and school board positions.

ALLEGED DONORA FORGER ARRESTED ACROSS THE SEA

The Pinkerton's National Detective Agency of New York, was notified August 19 last by one of its subscribers to Pinkerton's Bank and Banker's Protection, that the bank has received through the exchanges, a cashier's check drawn on the Peoples Bank of Donora, dated, August 17, 1911, payable to the order of Henry Pechan for $800 and signed A. T. Craven, cashier. It was drawn on the Hanover National Bank of New York, endorsed Henry Pechan and Jacob Unger, and by the latter deposited with the Bank of Europe, 1429 First avenue, New York city.

Telephone communication to Donora proved that the check was a forgery and unauthorized and that a number of blank cashier's checks had been stolen, it was alleged by Henry Pechan.

As this was an attempt on a subscriber, Pinkerton's National Detective Agency undertook the investigation with a view to determining the identity of the forger and causing his arrest. The investigation showed that Henry Pechan, in August 1910

ATTEND THE CAUCUS.

As the Mail has previously remarked, the caucus or suggestion meeting to suggest names for the local candidates to be nominated at the primary for borough office, is the fountain-head of politics. It is there that the start is made, and if the start is not right the finish will be all wrong. In other words, now is the time to pick the business managers who will direct the fiscal affairs of the borough and school district and if capable officials are not chosen the taxpayers will have to dip a little deeper into their pockets to make up for mistakes and lack of business judgment, while the school children will bear the effects of these mistakes to the end of their lives.

The Republican caucus is to be held this evening at 8 o'clock at the borough building. This is the dominant party, and it is probable that a portion of the ticket nominated at the primary will be elected. What is essential is that good, capable men be placed in nomination. The field is open to any qualified voter to accept a nomination, and means are provided for getting a place on the ticket, whether or not the name is suggested at the caucus. Some candidates will be nominated because they want the office, but the citizens should make an effort to induce others to become candidates because the public wants them.

No one is to blame for business mismanagement of borough or school affairs but the voters themselves. There is no shifting this responsibility.

INFORM THE PEOPLE.

Erasmus Wilson, the "Quiet Observer" of the Pittsburg Gazette Times offers a suggestion which if carried out may have the effect of preventing the repetition of a horror like the Canonsburg disaster, where 26 people were killed in a stampede from a moving picture show following a false alarm of fire. The stampede was caused by a break in the film, which caused a momentary flash. This, followed by the glare of the unobstructed powerful flash light of the machine, caused some of the audience to shout fire, and the fatal sampede followed.

Mr. Wilson suggests that from time to time the proprietors of the moving picture shows should give a demonstration of breaks in the films, which are likely to occur at any time, and to explain to the audience the effects, and to show the necessity of keeping cool and remaining in their seats. We have fire drills in schools and factories, Mr. Wilson states, and why not in nickelodeons and theatres? If this suggestion were followed out, and the audiences thoroughly understood the workings and effects of breaking films, in time no one would pay any attention to such occurrence. The suggestion is most timely.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

Charleroi has a number of picture lovers who are much concerned about the welfare of De Vinci's wonderful painting "Mona Lisa" which has strangely disappeared. And some of them carry their deep concern around with them habitually, so to speak. One individual got his sensitive spirit greatly shocked recently by a ardent baseball fan who didn't give a rap whether "Mona Lisa" was in the hands of a thief or buried 5,000 feet underground, and didn't care whether it was a picture or a catcher's glove.

The picture loving spirit had been reading during the day of the search for the picture. Then he went down street in the evening and the first person he struck was the baseball fan.

"Hello, J—" he said.

"Howdy."

"What do you think has become of Mono Lisa."

"Monte who?"

"Mona Lisa."

"Oh, Mona Lisa. Why I hadn't heard the story yet."

"Hadn't heard the story? Why man alive, that's the talk of the day."

"Well I declare, I am getting to be a back number. What league does he play in."

"What league? Oh, you spiteful, detestable street-loafer. You——."

Then the picture lover in a rage that his favorite had been slighted choking up and unable to express his contempt for such an individual who would mistake a fine picture for an ordinary, vulgar ball player, stamped down street.

"Art is not always appreciated," remarked a railroad employe the other day. "I know a young man, an Italian by birth, who devoted his life to the ambition of becoming a painter. He was limited in means and opportunities, but he made a valiant struggle in the art centers of his native country. Finally he got a position as a helper in the studio of a famous artist, where for a pittance he did the rough and preliminary daubing of canvasses for the studio. Finally, when the struggle to live became most acute, the embryo artist, in a fit of despair, invested his petty savings in a steerage ticket and embarked for America. Landing in New York he heard some vague rumors about Pittsburg as an art center through the beneficient patronage of Andrew Carnegie, and he finally drifted to the Smoky City.

"Here, of course, he was disappointed in getting a position in a studio, and driven to desperation, he answered an advertisement, 'Painters Wanted.' It happened to be the Pennsylvania Railroad company that wanted painters, and the young Italian artist was given a job at good pay. It isn't exactly the kind of a job that his ambition led him to seek, but it brings him a good pay envelope each month. The last I heard of him he was painting bridges at Beck's Run."

Couldn't Understand It.

A farmer's wife became insane, and to a friend who tried to console him, the farmer exclaimed: "I can't understand what caused her to go crazy I hope I'll be struck dead if I ain't telling you the truth when I tell you that she ain't been out of the kitchen a day in 20 years."

Finally Ascended Mountain.

After years of effort to reach its summit, which lies 6,500 feet above sea level, Mount Hothnam, Australia, has at last been conquered by motorists. The other day two motorists climbed up to its highest summit through gum tree forests, and over vast wastes of fern and sand. Fully 100 cars have attempted to climb this mountain but failed. The grades are so sharp that it is difficult in a long pull to lubricate the front cylinders of motors.

BOROUGH SURVEY IS TURNED DOWN

North Belle Vernon Council of Opinion That Plans Are Inaccurate

IN HANDS OF ATTORNEY

At a special meeting of North Belle Vernon council recently, following an unfavorable report of an engineer from the office of J. B. B. Hogg, the Connellsville engineer, the survey of the borough made by Trimble & Miller, of Pittsburg was turned down. This matter has been before council some time, and at no time did the body apparently favor accepting the plans of the Pittsburg firm, the claim being that they were inaccurate and did not show the streets and alleys of the borough as they were laid out and recorded at Greensburg. The next move is problematical, as the borough having put the whole responsibility on its attorney.

Some months ago council let the contract for a complete survey of the borough, owing to there being no complete plot in existence. When about finished it was learned that monuments were being set without being approved by council, which was claimed to be a violation of the contract. Then an investigation disclosed the fact that in one square when measured up showed a surplus of six feet.

Later when the complete map was presented to council one or two offsets were found in Broad State which when plotted a few years ago was made perfectly straight. This was explained by the engineers saying that the town had not been laid out the way it was plotted, and that the street in reality should show an angle. Then it was decided to hire Mr. Hogg as consulting engineer.

He sent T. B. Gibson there to check up the work, which he reported to council as being incorrect. Mr. Gibson had gone to Greensburg and looked up the records, although the claim was made that there was nothing on record. He found nine plans, which do not fit together. Everyone overlaps and it is altogether likely that the court wil be asked to take a hand in straightening them out.

SHE GOT WHAT SHE WANTED

This Woman Had to Insist Strongly, but it Paid

Chicago, Ill.—"I suffered from a female weakness and stomach trouble, and I went to the store to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, but the clerk did not want to let me have it—he said it was no good and wanted me to try something else, but knowing all about it I insisted and finally got it, and I am so glad I did, for it has cured me.

"I know of so many cases where women have been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that I can say to every suffering woman if that medicine does not help her, there is nothing that will."—Mrs. JANETZKI, 2263 Arch St., Chicago, Ill.

This is the age of substitution, and women who want a cure should insist upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound just as this woman did, and not accept something else on which the druggist can make a little more profit.

Women who are passing through this critical period or who are suffering from any of those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not lose sight of the fact that for thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which is made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills. In almost every community you will find women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

RICHARD MILLER WELL QUALIFIED

Popular Candidate for District Attorney is Able Young Attorney

Elsewhere in this issue appears the announcement of Richard G. Miller, as a Republican candidate for district attorney. Mr. Miller is one of the well known and rising young attorneys of the Washington county bar, and is in every way qualified to take care of the Commonwealth s interest both as a prosecutor and a preventer of crime and lawlessness should he be nominated and elected to the office he seeks.

A native of the river district. Mr. Miller was born at Elizabeth. He attended the public schools and later entered the State Normal school at California where he graduated in 1894 He taught school at Stockdale and was principal five years of the Elizabeth public schools. Afterwards he went to Washington where he studied law and was admitted to the bar.

Like all progressive young Americans Mr. Miller took an active interest in politics. He was an ardent Republican and in 1904 he was chosen as assistant secretary of the Republican county committee. He was selected as secretary of the committee the next year, and served in that capacity during the campaigns of 1905, 1906 and 1907. He was a member of the Republican county executive committee in 1908, the year Governor John K. Tener was elected to Congress. In 1909 Mr. Miller was elected chairman of the Republican county committee.

Mr. Miller is a member of the firm of Donnans, Brownson & Miller, one of the prominent law firms of the county seat. He only asks for one term as district attorney and is willing to pass the honor on to the next man should he receive the nomination and election this time.

was a customer of Jacob Unger, a furniture dealer of 1439 First avenue, New York city, but that in the latter part of that month had left for Republic, Pa.

He had returned on August 17,1911, and advised Mr.Unger that he intended to take up housekeeping again in New York City and desired to purchase some furniture, offering Mr. Unger the check for $800 above described. Mr. Unger introduced him at the Bank of Europe and also endorsed the cashier's draft so that he could obtain the money.

The bank paid him $500 in cash and opened a savings account for $300 under the name of Henry Pechan. Mr. Unger received $25 deposit on his furniture and the balance was retained by Henry Pechan.

Further investigations show that Henry Pechan, his wife, Catherine, and two other men relatives had bought steamship tickets at the First avenue steamship ticket office for Hamburg, Germany, Pechan using the name of Herman Anton, his wife the name of Catherine and the other two relatives sailing under their correct names.

Inspector Hughes and the District Attorney's office were conferred with and Detective B. Flood was detailed to handle the matter. As a result Pechan was indicted and a warrant issued in New York City for his arrest. The New York authorities cabled Scotland Yard and Pinkertons cabled their agent at London to assist in the arrest.

On Saturday last Pinkerton's received a cable from their agent at London stating that Henry Pechan had been arrested and was now being held for the New York authorities. Detective Flood will leave in a few days for London to return this man to New York for trial.

CONNIE MACK GETS "BULL" M'CLEARY FOR THE PHILLIES

Edward "Bull" McCleary, the well known athlete who for four years was a leader at State College in baseball and football, has signed to play with Connie Mack's Philadelphia American team. McCleary has been playing ball for the Ocean City, N. J. team, and his work there has attracted the attention of both National and American leaguers. His most pleasing offer came from Philadelphia. McCleray will not take up his work until next year with Philadelphia, as his duties as athletic trainer at State College requires his presence there September 1 to Thanksgiving. McCleary played one game and a part of another in Charleroi this season with the Charleroi Independents before going to Ocean City and looked good. He formerly played in the P. O. M. league. His position is outfield or pitcher, but he can occupy first base with more than ordinary credit when occasion demands.

CIRCULATING PETITIONS AMONG PROPERTY OWNERS

LINCOLN TO BE PAVED

Citizens Who Own Property Will Be Asked To Pay Pro Rata Share

At an informal meeting of council held Thursday evening, Borough Engineer Paul G. Elder was instructed to set the grades on Lincoln avenue from Sixth street to the northern borough line and on McKean avenue to the southern borough line, and Borough Solicitor D. M. McCloskey was instructed to prepare paving ordinances for both streets. These ordinances will be presented to council at the meeting to be held next Tuesday evening. The work is to be done so that the State aid in the improvement of these two streets promised by State Highways Commissioner E. M. Bigelow can be secured at once so that the work can be completed this fall.

In order to do the paving it will be necessary for the citizens to petition council in the regular way. To help in carrying out this idea council Thursday night prepared petitions and they are being circulated today. It is hoped that the Business Men's Association will co-operate in the move to secure the necessary signers.

When State Commissioner Bigelow was here he stated that it would be necessary for council to do a part of the work through this borough if the desired improvements were to be had. To what extent he did not say, but will notify council later. Council will have to do this through the citizens and property holders.

Each property holder along the streets will be asked to pay their pro rata share of the paving to be done. It is thought that the State will pay one-third the cost leaving the rest to be paid by citizens. It is proposed to make the usual division of the cost so that each property holder will not have more than 1-4 or 1-3 of the cost to pay for the work immediately in front of his holdings. If the local cost overruns the expected percentage council will stand the difference. There is no ready money on hand but rather than lose State aid a small floating indebtedness would be incurred.

It is hoped by road boomers of this borough that the necessary signers for the petitions may be secured without delay in order that the work may proceed. The State engineers are expected here within a few days.

At the meeting Thursday evening were President J. K. Hein, and Councilmen W. R. Gaut, A. O. Davis, Oscar C. Linn, and C. O. Frye.

FRANK KOLLER KILLED BY FAST EXPRESS TRAIN

Well Known Charleroi Man Meets Death at Eighth Street After Carrying Dinner to Son and Daughter

Frank Koller, aged 63, of 204 Shady avenue, while returning from Macbeth-Evans Glass plant where he had taken dinner for his son Frank and daughter Clara, was struck by the express following the 11 o'clock train at 11:50 o'clock this morning and killed. His body was knocked between 20 and 30 feet by the force of the impact.

Koller was a little deaf. At Eighth street the express begins to slow up for the stop at Charleroi. According to the statement of the fireman when the aged man was seen walking across the track it was too late to bring the train to a stop. The bell was rung and it is said the whistle tooted, but the man walked on oblivious to the danger. Apparently he was struck rather a glancing blow but still solidly enough to hurl him many feet distant.

When picked up the man was practicaly dead. His body was not much mangled, although there were several cuts and bruises about the face and upper part of the body. Death was due to internal injuries and the shock it is stated.

The body was brought to Wycoff's undertaking rooms and Coroner Jas. T. Heffran was notified this afternoon It is probable that an inquest will be held to probe the man's death.

His widow, Mrs. Mary Koller, two sons, Frank and George, both Macbeth-Evans workers and six daughters survive. The daughters are: Mrs. Joseph Wentzel, Mrs. Fred Reeves, Mrs. John Glasser, and Misses Mary and Clara at home and Mrs. George Rothleter. No funeral arrangements have been made.

STRICKEN WHILE ON WAY FROM REUNION

Thomas T. Hill, Aged Veteran of Civil War, at Home of Son in Charleroi in a Critical Condition

After two enjoyable days spent with his old comrades of the stirring days of the sixties Thomas T. Hill, a well known resident of Beallsville, and a member of the Ringgold Battalion during the Civil war, was stricken by paralysis late Thursday afternoon as he was returning from the reunion held at Belle Vernon. Mr. Hill who is about 70 years of age, is in a critical condition. He is at the home of his son, James Hill, 333 Fallowfield avenue, Charleroi.

Mr. Hill in company with A. W. Nickeson, of Beallsville was driving homeward. When near Clover Hill he suddenly became ill. He asked Mr. Nickeson for a drink of water, but before his companion had time to reply the aged man fell forward in a semi-conscious condition. Mr. Nickeson hurried the veteran to a nearby house, where a Charleroi physician was summoned. Later in the evening Mr. Hill was taken to the home of his son.

Mr. Hill had been deeply interested in the Ringgold reunion which has been in session in Belle Vernon for the past two days and for weeks had looked forward with the keenest pleasure to meeting with his comrades of the other days. He thoroughly enjoyed every minute of the time spent at Belle Vernon and had been talking with Mr. Nickeson of the men he had met and the stories he had heard, but a few minutes before he was stricken.

DUDLEY ASKS FOR RETURN OF FINE

Pardoned Washington Druggist Wants $1,000 Given Back by County

E. G. Dudley the Washington druggist who was arrested and served some time in the county jail for illegal liquor selling and fined $1,000, but was later pardoned after serving about two months of the six months' sentence, has filed suit against Washington county to collect the fine of $1,000 which was paid to the county commissioners. Dudley claims that when he was pardoned this relieved him of the fine and that now he is entitled to have the money returned to him.

Dudley fought his case to the last ditch in all of the courts and being turned down in the higher courts, sought pardon. The matter was taken up with the pardon board and after he had served about half his sentence he was pardoned.

The fine was collected only a short time before the pardon was received for Dudley. In the papers received from the pardon board nothing was said about the fine, and now he is bringing suit to compel the county of Washington to pay back this money.

Class Holds Meeting.

The Sunday school class of the Methodist Episcopal church taught by Samuel Chesure held its regular meeting at the home of George H. Hott of Oakland avenue Thursday evening. SAYS CONSTANTINOPLE IS FULL OF CHOLERA

One of the worst cholera epidemics ever experienced in Turkey has driven people from the city of Constantinople, included in the number who hastily departed being a well known young Charleroi man, C. Heilinger, a Macbeth-Evans worker who has been spending some months in the old world. Mr. Heilinger in a post card message from Constantinople to Editor E. C. Niver of the Mail says:

"I will depart from here as soon as possible as the cholera is spreading in all directions in the city and environs. One is not safe any place. I have witnessed the worst cases ever known here. These were in Turkey in the Golden Horn where over 100 victims died in one day. They couldn't get enough coffins made to bury the dead."

In a later card Mr. Heilinger states that he is on his way home and expects to arrive the first week of September.

HOT FIGHT ANTICIPATED

Supporters of Liberal Policy Said to be Preparing—Fusion Has Bearing

Much interest centers in the suggestion meeting to be held by the Republican party of Charleroi tonight at the Firemen's rooms. Upon it will hinge much interest in the municipal offices to be filled and it will have an important bearing both on the fall primaries to be held on September 30 and the election to be held in November.

It is rumored that an effort will be made by supporters of the so-called liberal policy for the town to have men favorable to their interests placed in office. Council is the main attraction. There are four councilmen to be elected, three for four years and one for two years. Sharing the interest with the councilmanic fight will be that of school directors. For the first time since the town started an entire new board of school directors will be chosen, two for two years, two for four and three for six years. This election will be in accordance with the new school code. Other important offices to be filled are justice of the peace, two to be elected, constable, assessor, auditor, high constable and all the election officers. Tonight the Republicans will name candidates for all these offices.

While the Reupblicans are busy the Democratic-Keystone alliance is getting in its work and men named at the primary by this fusion will be in the fight at the election in November up to their necks. The chances are the fushion will mean an unprecedented fight for the councilmanic and school board positions.

ALLEGED DONORA FORGER ARRESTED ACROSS THE SEA

The Pinkerton's National Detective Agency of New York, was notified August 19 last by one of its subscribers to Pinkerton's Bank and Banker's Protection, that the bank has received through the exchanges, a cashier's check drawn on the Peoples Bank of Donora, dated, August 17, 1911, payable to the order of Henry Pechan for $800 and signed A. T. Craven, cashier. It was drawn on the Hanover National Bank of New York, endorsed Henry Pechan and Jacob Unger, and by the latter deposited with the Bank of Europe, 1429 First avenue, New York city.

Telephone communication to Donora proved that the check was a forgery and unauthorized and that a number of blank cashier's checks had been stolen, it was alleged by Henry Pechan.

As this was an attempt on a subscriber, Pinkerton's National Detective Agency undertook the investigation with a view to determining the identity of the forger and causing his arrest. The investigation showed that Henry Pechan, in August 1910

ATTEND THE CAUCUS.

As the Mail has previously remarked, the caucus or suggestion meeting to suggest names for the local candidates to be nominated at the primary for borough office, is the fountain-head of politics. It is there that the start is made, and if the start is not right the finish will be all wrong. In other words, now is the time to pick the business managers who will direct the fiscal affairs of the borough and school district and if capable officials are not chosen the taxpayers will have to dip a little deeper into their pockets to make up for mistakes and lack of business judgment, while the school children will bear the effects of these mistakes to the end of their lives.

The Republican caucus is to be held this evening at 8 o'clock at the borough building. This is the dominant party, and it is probable that all portion of the ticket nominated at the primary will be elected. What is essential is that good, capable men be placed in nomination. The field is open to any qualified voter to accept a nomination, and means are provided for getting a place on the ticket, whether or not the name is suggested at the caucus. Some candidates will be nominated because they want the office, but the citizens should make an effort to induce others to become candidates because the public wants them.

No one is to blame for business mismanagement of borough or school affairs but the voters themselves. There is no shifting this responsibility.

INFORM THE PEOPLE.

Erasmus Wilson, the "Quiet Observer" of the Pittsburg Gazette Times offers a suggestion which if carried out may have the effect of preventing the repetition of a horror like the Canonsburg disaster, where 26 people were killed in a stampede from a moving picture show following a false alarm of fire. The stampede was caused by a break in the film, which caused a momentary flash. This, followed by the glare of the unobstructed powerful flash light of the machine, caused some of the audience to shout fire, and the fatal sampede followed.

Mr. Wilson suggests that from time to time the proprietors of the moving picture shows should give a demonstration of breaks in the films, which are likely to occur at any time, and to explain to the audience the effects, and to show the necessity of keeping cool and remaining in their seats. We have fire drills in schools and factories, Mr. Wilson states, and why not in nickelodeons and theatres? If this suggestion were followed out, and the audiences thoroughly understood the workings and effects of breaking films, in time no one would pay any attention to such occurrence. The suggestion is most timely.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

Charleroi has a number of picture lovers who are much concerned about the welfare of De Vinci's wonderful painting "Mona Lisa" which has strangely disappeared. And some of them carry their deep concern around with them habitually, so to speak. One individual got his sensitive spirit greatly shocked recently by a ardent baseball fan who didn't give a rap whether "Mona Lisa" was in the hands of a thief or buried 5,000 feet underground, and didn't care whether it was a picture or a catcher's glove.

The picture loving spirit had been reading during the day of the search for the picture. Then he went down street in the evening and the first person he struck was the baseball fan.

"Hello, J—" he said.

"Howdy."

"What do you think has become of Mono Lisa."

"Monte who?"

"Mona Lisa."

"Oh, Mona Lisa. Why I hadn't heard the story yet."

"Hadn't heard the story? Why man alive, that's the talk of the day."

"Well I declare, I am getting to be a back number. What league does he play in."

"What league? Oh, you spiteful, detestable street-loafer. You——"

Then the picture lover in a rage that his favorite had been slighted choking up and unable to express his contempt for such an individual who would mistake a fine picture for an ordinary, vulgar ball player, stamped down street.

"Art is not always appreciated," remarked a railroad employe the other day. "I know a young man, an Italian by birth, who devoted his life to the ambition of becoming a painter. He was limited in means and opportunities, but he made a valiant struggle in the art centers of his native country. Finally he got a position as a helper in the studio of a famous artist, where for a pittance he did the rough and preliminary daubing of canvasses for the studio. Finally, when the struggle to live became most acute, the embryo artist, in a fit of despair, invested his petty savings in a steerage ticket and embarked for America. Landing in New York he heard some vague rumors about Pittsburg as an art center through the beneficient patronage of Andrew Carnegie, and he finally drifted to the Smoky City.

"Here, of course, he was disappointed in getting a position in a studio, and driven to desperation, he answered an advertisement, 'Painters Wanted.' It happened to be the Pennsylvania Railroad company that wanted painters, and the young Italian artist was given a job at good pay. It isn't exactly the kind of a job that his ambition led him to seek, but it brings him a good pay envelope each month. The last I heard of him he was painting bridges at Beck's Run."

Couldn't Understand It.

A farmer's wife became insane, and to a friend who tried to console him, the farmer exclaimed: "I can't understand what caused her to go crazy. I hope I'll be struck dead if I ain't telling you the truth when I tell you that she ain't been out of the kitchen a day in 20 years."

BOROUGH SURVEY IS TURNED DOWN

North Belle Vernon Council of Opinion That Plans Are Inaccurate

IN HANDS OF ATTORNEY

At a special meeting of North Belle Vernon council recently, following an unfavorable report of an engineer from the office of J. B. B. Hogg, the Connellsville engineer, the survey of the borough made by Trimble & Miller, of Pittsburg was turned down. This matter has been before council some time, and at no time did the body apparently favor accepting the plans of the Pittsburg firm, the claim being that they were inaccurate and did not show the streets and alleys of the borough as they were laid out and recorded at Greensburg. The next move is problematical, as the borough having put the whole responsibility on its attorney.

Some months ago council let the contract for a complete survey of the borough, owing to there being no complete plot in existence. When about finished it was learned that monuments were being set without being approved by council, which was claimed to be a violation of the contract. Then an investigation disclosed the fact that in one square when measured up showed a surplus of six feet.

Later when the complete map was presented to council one or two offsets were found in Broad State which when plotted a few years ago was made perfectly straight. This was explained by the engineers saying that the town had not been laid out the way it was plotted, and that the street in reality should show an angle. Then it was decided to hire Mr. Hogg as consulting engineer.

He sent T. B. Gibson there to check up the work, which he reported to council as being incorrect. Mr. Gibson had gone to Greensburg and looked up the records, although the claim was made that there was nothing on record. He found nine plans, which do not fit together. Everyone overlaps and it is altogether likely that the court wil be asked to take a hand in straightening them out.

This Woman Had to Insist Strongly, but it Paid

Chicago, Ill.—"I suffered from a female weakness and stomach trouble, and I went to the store to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, but the clerk did not want to let me have it—he said it was no good and wanted me to try something else, but knowing all about it I insisted and finally got it, and I am so [illegible]

"I know of so many cases where women have been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that I can [illegible] to every suffering woman if that medicine does not help her, there is nothing that will."—Mrs. JANETZKI, 2063 Arch st., Chicago, Ill.

This is the age of substitution, and women who want a cure should insist on Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound just as this woman did, and not accept something else on which the druggist can make a little more profit.

Women who are passing through this critical period or who are suffering from any of those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not lose sight of the fact that for thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which is made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills. In almost every community you will find women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
